

JellyLamp

Marmeled is the first product from project JellyLamp, a lamp that combines the brightness of LEDs and the infinite potentialities of jellies. The Marmeled lamp does not have a visible switch, but can be turned on by simply turning the jar over onto its lid. Produced in Italy with LED-based technology and recyclable materials, the Marmeled lamp ensures good energy conservation and is available in six different colours.

www.jellylamp.com

